[illegible] whom [illegible] called on R. Hill on Thursday.

Margaret has just discharged the most wonderful genius in turning the large table in the dining room into a set of drawers and bookcases. Fredrika ingeniously says do we wear it as a mask in Queen Success though it has undergone this transformation it is the large table still. Her father and Flodoardo also her brother-in-law are so deeply interested. Mr Ager one auto literary enthusiast reading over the music during spirit séances from directions and playing very sweet produced inspiration x of Rosseth to read it aloud. he said "be glad Sir as this is no private audience, but many than actors here is for publicity to read this letter aloud" L. F. exhibited signs of suspicion and vexation - he presumed that Judge Jay the Chairman of the Committee was not present a son - Miss T. seems still out of health. The deaths of her uncle seems to be a great trouble to her. Yesterday brought me a nicely kind and expected letter from Ellen Crap they are very happy very busy and get ting on fast, liking their studies very much do. W. became had been to see them - he is travelling again with his Panorama and is at present at Bolton he has been to Calais and spent a week with his daugh ters who he says are getting on very well.

53

Have you seen Walter lately? degenerate boy, I hear he has taken the wrong side but I will still hope better things of him.
It is a comfort to me to think that you can read this long letter by bits, or not at all just as it suits you - Mr. L. is just going to the Microscopic Society and will take this with him to deposit in the letter box so farewell dear ones all accept our fond love and believe me Yours in sweet affection
M.
Does R. Stephens keep its place at the head of your bed - The churches shone brightly about the last Chapter present I am quite sure to enter into it so much as to Paris. I shall fancy it would give me [illegible] with you all perhaps you hardly know me how much I may this appointment to [illegible] myself bound by the chains of sickness from setting off at once - believe me we reports of disasters in New Orleans could not be worse than those is nothing as far as we can calculate or foresee may reach [illegible] Fever has been constantly of our country men and women going there in the great est confusion but had it been otherwise Mamma could not with her weakness to have been once more by your side and I do not [illegible] of the house tho' it [illegible] pretty [illegible] the women [illegible] you will come to see [illegible]

us. if I can't [illegible] I left Mrs Ker-

57

Feby 14th Dear [illegible]

Your letters received are highly [illegible] and I have read them [illegible] [illegible] to do [illegible] to to send you an [illegible] of the [illegible] of the Candidate [illegible] you will see from what [illegible] that is going on, and [illegible] ing itself forth - our [illegible] [illegible] much occupied in these matters.
a heavy receipt of [illegible] to much so that I have been taking into consideration the propriety of [illegible] set in Logic as [illegible] [illegible]
[illegible]
[